

City Officials Hit for Census Count 'Bungling'

MOMENT OF EXCITEMENT came when pretty Miss Palm Springs, Gloria Neil received her trophy as second runner-up in the Miss California Beauty Pageant in Burbank last year. A search started this week for a girl who will capture her title at the Miss Palm Springs Beauty Pageant to be held June 3 at the Palm Springs Riviera Hotel. Application plans for contestants, who must be 18 years or older on July 1, 1960, are available at the offices of The Daily Desert Sun or at the Riviera Hotel. This year the Miss California Pageant will be held at Santa Monica. (Desert Sun Photo).

CITY OFFICIALS CHIDED ON CENSUS

Well-meaning but inept Palm Springs city officials have virtually monkey-wrenched the possibility of an accurate count in the 1960 census here, bringing about such high tension that several Bureau of Census employees have quit their jobs and stopped their count of local areas.

Virginia Gilmore, supervisor of census for the City of Palm Springs, said today that she has had to train three new census takers to bring the enumeration force up to its required number and that they will start on the job today.

A GREAT DEAL OF the tension has been supplied by what Mrs. Gilmore has referred to as "adverse publicity" to the count currently underway throughout the U. S.

"We are proceeding rapidly and systematically in the count of Palm Springs residents," said Mrs. Gilmore, "and the enumerators are doing an excellent job."

Two city officials told the City Council that they had "not been counted," but when census takers checked them they found they had been among the first counted in their respective districts. When asked why they said they were not counted, one of them shrugged his shoulders and said: "I just wanted to double check."

LITTLE KNOWN by local citizens are the strict laws which govern the taking of the decennial census.

For instance, failure on the part of a citizen to talk with a census taker can send that person to jail for 60 days and/or a $100 fine. This fine is increased to $500 if the person gives the census taker false information.

As one city councilman said, "Being counted in the Federal census is not only a necessary thing for the city, county and state in which you live, but a very patriotic thing."

"Be glad you are an American, and stand up and be counted as one."

CITY MANAGER Dan Wamer outlined a simple procedure "to help with the count. Check carefully, find out if anyone in your family has already talked with the census taker and if not call FAirview 4-1131, give your name and address to the person at Extension 43 and a census taker will call on you."

Another method to make sure that you have been counted is to clip the questionnaire from The Desert Sun — printed on May 6 and 11 — and mail it to the Bureau of Census in Riverside.

Navy Says Cuba Fired on Sub

WASHINGTON — (UPI) — The Navy confirmed today that the U. S. submarine, Sea Poacher, was fired upon by a Cuban Patrol boat, but it denied Fidel Castro's charge that the vessel violated Cuba's territorial waters.

The incident occurred Sunday night more than five miles off the Cuban coast well into international waters, the Navy said.

PD Realtors Bare Tax Statistics

PALM DESERT — In answer to a charge that the Palm Desert Board of Realtors do not pay enough taxes to comment on a school tax override election, the board discloses its members paid $104,794 out in taxes last year.

Ted Smith, chairman of the tax study group and past president of the board, told the Desert Sun today that the board made a survey which turned up the $104,794 — which means the average for each member in taxes last year was $1,785.

"THOSE WERE TAXES paid by members on property they owned or controlled," Smith said, adding that the Coachella Valley Taxpayers Association recently challenged the right of the board to comment on community activities after it had endorsed the 35 cents tax override in the coming June 7 election.

"Of the board, 85 per cent of them are taxpayers in the Coachella Valley," Smith said. The total assessed valuation of the members is $1,663,400, Smith added.

SMITH SAID the survey is in answer to the association's statement questioning how many of the members of the board paid taxes and the amount, and if it qualified them to take part in community activities.

Smith said that the survey discloses "certainly indicate that the board members have a right to take part and comment on community happenings."

Demonstrators Mass For New March on House Committee

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Students planned a mass march on City Hall today and police mobilized forces in an attempt to keep the demonstration from becoming a riot like the one Friday.

Twelve persons were hospitalized yesterday and 64 arrested in what police called the worst rioting since V-J Day when waves of armed Marines moved down Market Street to disperse an uncontrollable mob.

DEBBIE REYNOLDS ADDS ARMED FORCES QUEEN TO TITLES

Debbie Reynolds, pretty MGM star and Palm Springs resident, will be Queen of Armed Forces Day at George Air Force Base, it was learned here today.

The actress, who only recently purchased a new home in Palm Springs and served as Queen of Desert Circus last month, will be hosted at George Air Force Base by Palm Springs adopted 308th Tactical Squadron.

She will be flown to the ceremonies by Palm Springs "Flying Great-grandmother" Zeddie Bunker, last years Armed Forces Day queen, and they will leave the Palm Springs Airport at 8 a.m. tomorrow morning.

Oregon Primary Eyed as Test of Truman Impact

WASHINGTON — (UPI) — The wide-open Oregon presidential primary next Friday took on new significance today as a test of whether former President Truman's opposition could slow down Sen. John F. Kennedy's high-riding drive for the Democratic nomination.

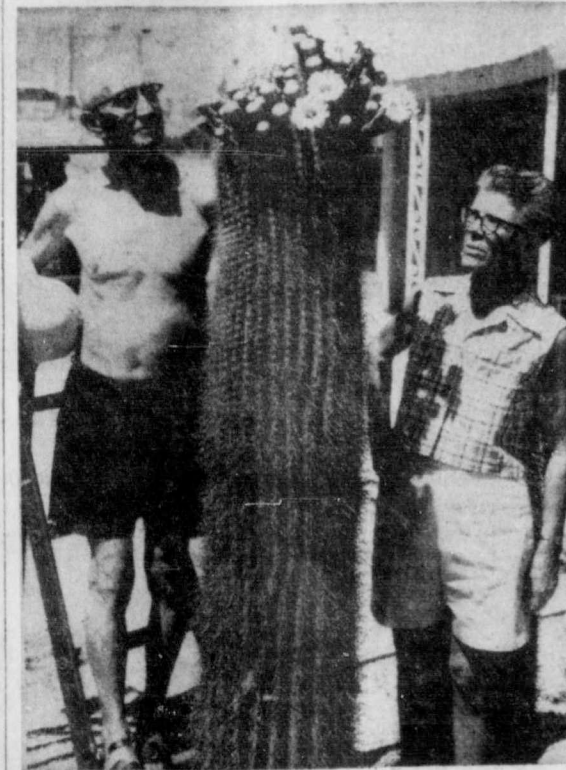

Truman Friday joined the stop-Kennedy movement by endorsing Sen. Stuart Symington, a fellow Missourian, as "the best man" for the nomination. Truman scoffed at suggestions that Kennedy might be unstoppable.

Truman's endorsement, coming shortly after Kennedy's smashing victory in the West Virginia primary, pointed up the feeling among many backers of rival Democratic hopefuls that the Massachusetts senator must be checkmated soon to avoid a stampede of support before the Democratic convention in July.

Beverly Might Live With Parson

LOS ANGELES — (UPI) — The judge who will decide the fate of playgirl Beverly Aadland today pondered the offer of a preacher to take her into his home if the teen-ager is freed on sex delinquency charges.

The Rev. Leonard Eilers, a former cowboy actor, made the proposal Friday as the juvenile hearing recovered the judicial decorum strained by the antics of Beverly's platinum-haired mother.

TRANSLATOR BIDS FOR NEW CHANNELS

Palm Springs Translator Stations, Inc., dormant for some time, suddenly came alive today when President Frank Bennett announced that preliminary work has been completed to acquire two additional stations for full-time broadcasting over the local network.

Bennett said today that a special "improvement campaign" for funds would be run starting today to acquire XETV — Channel 6, the San Diego area ABC network line and KOOP — Channel 13, an independent Los Angeles channel.

AN APPLICATION WAS filed on May 5 with the Federal Communications Commission for permission to add these two channels to Translator here.

Cost to put the two additional channels in reception will be $5,500 each. The money will be raised by personal contributions. Bennett said that "several" community-minded citizens have offered to contribute the cost of adding the second channel provided that the people of Palm Springs contribute sufficient funds to add the first channel.

ALL DONATIONS WILL be placed in a special "improvement fund" and will be held until the entire amount is subscribed. In the event the necessary total is not reached, the money will be returned to all contributors.

The addition of the two new channels will bring to a total of four the stations receivable by local Translator users with channels Two and Four as part time channels and Channels Six and Thirteen as full time channels.

Colorado River Brief in Court

LOS ANGELES — (UPI) — A brief challenging the findings of a special U.S. Supreme Court master in the Colorado River water dispute was scheduled today to be filed with the court official, Simon Rifkind.

The brief was released Friday by State Attorney General Stanley Mosk, subsequent to a series of conferences between Mosk, his aides and officials of various public agencies.

Rifkind favored Arizona in his ruling on the water dispute.

N.Y. Cubans Riot Over Newspaper

10 Desert Items For Supervisors In Monday Meet

RIVERSIDE — Ten items of particular interest to the desert area are on the agenda of the county supervisors' meeting which begins here at 10 a.m. Monday.

Under road matters, the supervisors will consider recommendations to extend agreements on El Dorado Golf Club Estates numbers four, five, and six.

Planning matters for study include a recommendation to deny a permit to Elg and Easton for a shooting range in East Palm Springs, and two zone changes. Zone matters include recommendation for change of zone requested by A. Guttman in the Cathedral City - Palm Desert District, and a recommendation on commission initiative to change property zones in the Cathedral City - Palm Desert district.

The notice of intent to circulate incorporation petitions in Desert Hot Springs and a petition from the Southern Pacific Company for withdrawal of property from the Palm Springs cemetery district are among miscellaneous matters to be heard.

Stevenson Urges Support for Ike

CHICAGO — (UPI) — Adlai E. Stevenson, asking the "prayers and support" of the American people for President Eisenhower at the Paris summit conference, said Friday night disarmament "is the only hope of security and peace."

President Preps 'Open Society' Plan

Eisenhower Will Offer Bold New Plan for Peace

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Eisenhower flies to Paris tonight to challenge Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev to accept a dramatic "open societies" plan that would eliminate the need for any more spy flights.

The President will arrive in the French capital Sunday for the Big Four summit conference which will determine whether he will go through with his planned visit to Russia and could set the temperature of the cold war for years to come.

THE INTERNATIONAL tension caused by the downing of an American U-2 spy plane deep inside Russia May 1 has cast a deep shadow over the real purpose of the summit — a top level discussion of disarmament, a nuclear test ban agreement and the German and Berlin problems.

The summit talks will bring the President face-to-face with Khrushchev who has severely criticized the United States and Eisenhower because of the spy plane incident.

KHRUSHCHEV TOLD reporters in Moscow that Russia might launch atomic rockets against the United States if this country kept its promise to continue the spy flights. He also said Eisenhower might not be welcome in the Soviet Union.

Eisenhower's orange and silver Air Force jetliner was scheduled to take off at 7:45 p.m. (e.d.t.) from nearby Andrews Air Force Base, Md.

A SMILING NIKITA Khrushchev arrived today in Paris with "hopes" the Summit Conference would make progress, and only an indirect sideswipe at the United States.

"I hope the conference will make progress on the most urgent problems of the day," the Soviet Premier declared after landing at Orly Airport in a white IL18 turboprop transport.

In the closest approach to a crack at the United States he charged that "influential circles in some countries" are trying to rekindle the cold war. For the past week he has made those charges against Washington.

IN RELATED ACTIONS, the Federal Space Agency, in a mystifying reversal, said it is not after all ready to send up its ground-U-2 jets to resume "upper air research" flights. But the Defense Department announced a U-2 mission for next week.

And from Bern, Switzerland, it was learned Russia has accused neutral Switzerland today of expelling two Soviet Embassy spies in a Swiss-U. S. plot to deflect world opinion from the shooting down of a U.S. "spy plane" over Russia.

Watch That Speed Limit! Highway 111 Gets New Signs

Watch the speed limit signs, neighbor, because the speed limits on Highway 111 through here will be changed when the signs are erected — probably in a week. Most changes will slow traffic somewhat.

The present 65 m. p. h. zone from the end of the divided highway northwest of the city to a point near Yorba Road has been reduced to 50 m. p. h., and an existing 45 zone has been extended north to Yorba Road and south to near Via Escuela.

A 35 mile zone goes south to a point just north of Paseo El Mirador, where it ends in the current 25 zone.

The 25 zone will go into a 30 zone just north of Ramon Road, and south to a 35 zone south to Riverside Drive. The 35 zones goes to a point just west of Calle Palo Fierro, where the current 45 zone becomes 40 m. p. h., extending east to a 45 zone beginning east of Sagebrush Road. The 45 zone, extending close to the eastern city limit, includes a portion not previously posted.

Highway engineer J. C. Womack and Palm Springs chief of police August Keltman have agreed on the changes.

Influenced by the fact that she has 13 letters in her name, Miss Ward has always regarded the so-called unlucky numeral (13) as her good luck charm. ## City License Report Goes To Council

8-Member Citizen Committee Delivers Report This Week

A citizens committee of eight men has presented to the City Council a complete revision of the Palm Springs Business License Ordinance—with recommendations for consideration by the city's governing body.

Matthew J. Dragicovich, chairman of the committee, told the council that the committee met every Monday night for a total of 16 weeks to complete the project which was to correct three areas of criticism in the present ordinance.

THE THREE AREAS were set out by the committee as: (a) to eliminate existing inequities within the present licensing framework; (b) to codify and update the cumbersome and antiquated ordinance provisions; and (c) to establish a consistent basis for the license tax.

After the many hours of study and investigation on the part of the committee, they submitted five specific recommendations for council determination:

—THAT THE PRESENT ordinance as revised be adopted for the coming year; that the words "business license fees" be changed to "business license tax"; that a study be made toward adopting a gross receipts license tax based on the League of California Cities Business License Tax report; and that all persons being licensed in 1960-61 fiscal year make a gross receipts report for the previous calendar year on forms to be supplied by the city.

—THAT A BOOKLET be prepared summarizing licensing provisions and be made available to all licensees and prospective licensees; —THAT A BOARD OF REVIEW be established to evaluate and revise license procedures and review apparent inequities;

—THAT ENFORCEMENT provisions be given careful review with the purpose of accompanying better utilization of police officers as license inspectors, especially in the area of out-of-town delivery vehicles; and also that the City Council instruct the City Attorney to employ the civil process for the enforcement of a business license tax ordinance; —THAT DECALS be used instead of metal tags for vehicles requiring tags.

PLANNING FOR ELECTION of directors of the Palm Springs Hotel and Apartment Association, Incorporated, to be held on May 18, are president Harry Paisley, two-term chief of the association, city council member, and former city planning commission member, who reviews final details with Lynne Jennings, entertainment committee chairman. The annual event will be held in the Oasis Hotel, with cocktails at 7:30 p.m., dinner-dance meeting at 8:30 p.m. Pat Barbara and his orchestra will play for the festivities. (Sun Photo).

Dear Abby... by Abigail VanBuren

DEAR ABBY: My husband's best friend is in love with me. He has never touched me or said anything suggestive to me, but I know it as sure as I am living. It is so apparent that even my mother noticed it. We are all in our thirties. This friend has never married.

I love my husband and children very much, Abby, and I don't want anything to happen to my marriage. This man works with my husband, and my husband brings him home for dinner very often. The children love him, and he adores them. Is it wrong to be too kind to people, Abby? How do I discourage him? When he looks at me I see desire in his eyes. I am not mistaken. A woman knows those things. Help me, please. I am a bundle of nerves over this. I've never talked to my husband about it. He doesn't suspect a thing.

DEAR BUNDLE: Tell your husband that when he invites his friend to the house for dinner, he should ask him to bring a lady friend of his own. Or else you invite one.

DEAR ABBY: When I was growing up my parents thought it was impolite for children to call adults by their first names. As a result I was told that this was "Aunt Joan and Uncle Bill" and "Aunt Polly and Uncle Al". Years later I learned that these people were not my real aunts and uncles at all — just good friends of my parents. It was terribly confusing.

I am raising children now, and I too feel that they shouldn't call adults by their first names, but I don't want to start that "Aunt Joan and Uncle Bill" business. Have you or your readers any suggestions? "Mr. and Mrs." is too formal. YOUNG MOTHER: DEAR YOUNG MOTHER: I agree that children shouldn't call adults by their first names. But "Mr. and Mrs." denotes respect — not formality.

DEAR ABBY: I have a daughter-in-law who has two Mexican Chihuahua dogs and every time she comes to my house she brings them. I don't mind dogs as a rule, but these two look like a pair of skinned rats and I detest them. She lets them run all over the living room and my sofa covering is already full of snags from

ADVERTISERS ALL PREFER THE PAPER

Newspapers continue to lead all other media in advertising preference among most people, according to a survey conducted by Louis Cheskin Associates, market consultants, of Chicago.

The 1960 survey shows that 83 per cent of favorable associations are connected with newspaper advertising; 76 per cent with magazines; 49 per cent with television; 34 per cent with radio, and 31 per cent with billboards.

THE FIRM HAS been taking surveys of people's attitude for several years.

The 1960 survey shows a considerable switch in public opinion in the past three years. The same survey in 1957 showed: Television 84 per cent; newspapers 59 per cent; magazines 53 per cent; billboards 28 per cent, and radio 19 per cent.

The check was taken by what is known as the polar adjective method, in which people checked the media most closely associated in their minds with a list of adjectives.

THE REPORT SAID: "Television, of all the media, has the largest number of associations with 'pleasing' and 'like best' and also with 'false, irritating, insincere, bad taste, not beneficial, deceptive and like least'."

"Newspapers have the largest number of associations with 'true, informative, sincere, in good taste, beneficial, honest and important'."

5 New Directors To Be Named by DHS Chamber

DESERT HOT SPRINGS —The Desert Hot Springs Chamber of Commerce has appointed a committee to nominate five directors to succeed Stone Wright, Jr., Bruce Crawford, John Kean, Peter Sliott, and Herman Schaefer, whose terms expire in June.

Named to the committee were Steve Podracky, Allen Horton, and Robert Rickett.

The directors will serve three year terms. Next Thursday, the Chamber will hold a special meeting to receive nominations from the floor. Ballots will be distributed to members after the Thursday meeting, and the election results will be announced at the June 2 meeting.

The Chamber decided, after a discussion led by the Rev. Charles Harwood, to oppose the proposed rate raise sought by the California Water and Telephone Company for this area. Donk Davis, manager of the utility in the Palm Springs area, spoke to the Chamber on April 7.

Gary Knutson Elected De Molay Master Counselor

The Problem...The Solution

Much has been said and written on the subject of teen-agers vacationing in Palm Springs and the beach cities during Easter Week.

If it has started people thinking about a possible solution, then it has been worthwhile. If it continues just as a basis for attacking teen-agers then it might as well be forgotten.

Year after year the problem exists. Year after year the complaints follow.

It has been pointed out many times that the offenders are only a minority of the total number of vacationing students, but even 10 per cent is too high.

Most of the complaints and arrests have been traced to lack of supervision, overcrowding of hotel and apartment rooms, and houses. This then is the problem.

There were 107 arrests made by the Police Department here during the week. In addition there were 222 complaints, six non-injury accidents and 85 citations issued. Total overtime put in by regular officers was 524 hours, and by Palm Springs Reserves and Mounted Police 278 hours. Total extra payroll cost to the city was $3,600.

In addition, the noise and traffic and antics of the teen-agers irritated many residents and adult visitors — and no doubt cut down routine visiting around town.

What is the solution?

It's obvious that there is no overall remedy. But, as a majority of complaints were traced to places where overcrowded, unsupervised activities existed, it can be alleviated if every renter of property during that time adopts a self-policing attitude.

Rent only, for the capacity of the place. Take only supervised youth. Check to see that conditions are as agreed upon at the rental time.

No amount of police work is going to correct the situation unless there is co-operation from everyone in the community.

Let's have the teen-agers. But let's have them here for a week of fun, under supervision — not for a week of rowdiness.

Kennedy a Sailor

WASHINGTON — UPI — Backstairs at the White House:

There has been some interesting research recently on the recreational habits of the men most likely to be president. Particular attention has been paid to their taste in vacations.

This can be frightfully important to the more or less permanent residents of 1600 Pennsylvania Avenue, such as the Secret Service agents, the Signal Corps detail, and the basic House and office staffs.

SEN. JOHN KENNEDY of Massachusetts, the Democratic front runner, likes sailing vacations at Hyannisport, Mass., on the exclusive edge of Cape Cod, and sunny winter holidays in the sands of Palm Beach, Fla.

This conceivably could bring back the White House yacht, a prerequisite of the presidency until Eisenhower came along and abolished the good ship Williamsburg as a shuddering symbol of luxury.

THE WHITE HOUSE would be just jim-dandy as it stands for Vice President Richard M. Nixon and his family. Nixon and his two girls love swimming.

The White House pool is ready and waiting and the girls could have some wonderful splash parties for their school friends. The vice president also likes golf, so the green on the south lawn probably would go undisturbed.

ALTHOUGH THE NIXONS hail from California, they like winter vacations in Florida, particularly at Key Biscayne near Miami, and at West Palm Beach. Perhaps he might revive Key West as a presidential resort — if the memories of a Democratic president are not too overpowered.

Eisenhower tried Key West once, but didn't like the golf course. It has been improved since.

Another prominent Democrat, Adlai E. Stevenson, probably would keep the tennis court if he were elected president. Stevenson once was a golfer, but gave it up in favor of tennis. He's the quiet type on vacations and prefers places like Pinehurst, N.C., or Aiken, S.C.

SEN. STUART Symington of Missouri likes golf, hunting and deep sea fishing. The hunting is excellent in the Maryland mountains near Camp David. The Symingtons take their holidays in South Florida and on an old estate of Mrs. Symington's family near Geneseo, N.Y.

Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas, another Democratic prospect, he is so incurably Texan that much of any holiday time is spent at home. Home is a vast ranch 80 miles outside Austin, where the Senate Democratic leader likes to lounge beside his kidney-shaped swimming pool and telephone back to Washington.

HOUSING FOR a White House travel party on or near the Johnson ranch might present some problems. It might be interesting, at that.

Secret Service men in chaps and ten gallon hats, for example, packing their guns in low-slung hip holsters. And the squawk of walkie talkie radios around the ranch campfires at night, plus a melancholy guitar telling sad stories of days gone by, of days in air conditioned hotels with room service and television in every room.

The Entrance That K Built

This Side of The Sun

By Phat

Don't brag about our weather. It makes me feel so sad. For when you say it's perfect it always turns out bad.

Now, that wasn't the exact text but it carries the intent of a conversation the other day.

CLIFF BROWN of the Chamber of Commerce staff, tub-thumper for Palm Springs, was talking.

"We're glad to have people spread the news of the climate here on the desert, the healthy sunshine and so on.

"We're glad to have you, when on your peregrinations about the country, bore people in the lounge cars, in hotel lobbies and similar places about how good the desert is for you.

"IT'S ONLY WHEN you set forth those things in print that we object.

"For every time you do, something happens.

"I know you write your pieces from two to three days in advance of publication. And when, on Thursday, let's say, we have one of our typical perfect days, you brag about it, when the article appears on Monday, it's probably raining.

"Look at what you did this week. Kept bragging about May as the best month here and then it boiled up into a real hot day.

"With your luck on the weather, why don't you say we are going to have a helluva summer?

"Then it will probably be one of the best we ever had."

NOW TO ADD the finale on Precious, the Memphis, Tennessee, parrot who flew to this area. Not under its own power but by airplane.

I had something in Tuesday's piece about Precious. It belongs to Mr. and Mrs. Abner Driver of Memphis who are here to visit their daughter, Wanda, and her husband, Ray Ford.

True to their name, they drove out. But Precious being a bird, flew out. Via airplane.

PRECIOUS is here safely. Not a feather ruffled by the long but speedy jaunt.

I asked Mrs. Ford what the parrot's first words were upon arrival here. Held a rather uncovered hope that when they uncovered the cage it would look around and note the difference between Memphis and the desert area.

And say: "Well, I'll be darned."

But being a friendly bird, all it said was: "Hi!"

Then, being a diplomatic bird: "I love you."

Precious beat Mr. and Mrs. Driver out here by four days.

THIS STORY I like comes to this typewriter via Hal Wood, sports writer for the United Press International.

Wood credits Bob Crosby for the tale about Jack Benny.

Jack, according to Crosby went up to his caddy at a Los Angeles country club and asked: "Are you good at finding golf balls?"

"Yes, Sir," replied the caddy.

"Good," said Benny. "Go find one and we'll start playing."

ANOTHER GOOD ONE is about the small boy who asked his dad:

"Do political plums come from seeds?"

"No," said the old man. "They result from clever grafting."

DICK WEST: Now Here's a Contest

WASHINGTON — UPI — For action-packed thrills that makes the spine tingle and bring a cheer to the throat, I wouldn't recommend a six-day bricklaying contest.

Such an event is going on here at the AFL-CIO union industries show and, thinking I might be stirred by the classic struggle of man against mortar, I went out to watch the first heat.

POSSIBLY A REAL dried-in-the-kiln fan of brick masonry could have found something to shout "ole!" about, but I doubt it. Any excitement that a bricklaying contest generates is pretty well confined to the bricklayers. As a spectator sport, it ranks somewhere between quilling bees and hourglass watching.

Nevertheless, a goodly crowd was on hand for the start of the contest, which is being sponsored by the Bricklayers Union as a means of selecting the 1960 "apprentice of the year."

AT SOME OTHER exhibits in the show, union-made articles were being given away to spectators and I suspect this partly accounted for the turnout at the bricklaying contest.

As I was being elbowed aside by a couple of women carrying shopping bags, I heard one of them ask: "What do they give you here, a brick wall?"

I don't know how those ladies figured on getting brick walls into their shopping bags but I expect they would have managed it somehow.

MORE THAN 40 apprentice bricklayers from all over the country are competing for $500 prize money and various other emoluments that accrue to contest winners.

Twice daily, six of them take positions by a brick pile and, at a signal from the judges, begin erecting things as called for in the contest blueprints. This goes on for six days.

I don't know a thing about handicapping bricklayers, but if there had been a bookmaker handy I would have put my money on No. 6, a tall, dark-haired young man from New Haven, Conn. As the racing writers say, he had good "early foot."

WHILE THE OTHER contestants were taking preliminary measurements and drawing lines on the floor, No. 6 simply slapped down some mortar and began laying on the bricks. He was well ahead of the field when I returned from the scene to inspect some of the other exhibits.

When I returned, drops of perspiration were cascading off No. 6's nose and he was tearing down part of his handwork to correct some mistakes he had made.

The first heat still had two hours to go and I didn't wait to see how it turned out. As I have suggested, a little bricklaying goes a long way, particularly when it develops into a hare-and-tortoise race.

Continuing his interrupted honeymoon with Rhonda Fleming on the Colorado location site of his "hoss opera with a railroading background."

MOSCOW — Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev, questioning whether President Eisenhower would be "welcome" in Russia next month because of the U.S. spy plane incident:

"I would be made to say to the Russian people to welcome as a host a man who sends espionage planes here."

CHICAGO — Adlai Stevenson accusing the administration of blundering on the eve of the summit conference:

"The discovery of the spy plane coupled with the simultaneous announcement that we were unilaterally resuming the nuclear tests can hardly enhance our image as champion of peace in the world."

WASHINGTON — The State Department denying in a note to the Kremlin that the flight of the U-2 plane over Russia was intended to sabotage the summit meeting:

"Indeed, it is the Soviet government's treatment of this case which, if anything, may raise questions about its intentions in respect to these matters."

MIKE CONNOLLY:

Jackie Has Clearance

HOLLYWOOD — Jackie Gleason received clearances from his favorite saloon-keeper, Toots Shor, and from his business manager, George "Bullets" Durgom, to portray them dramatically in "Million Dollar Incident," the movie he'll make this summer. Actors will portray Shor and Durgom but an outfit named CBS will play it self — as the television network held as ransom for a kidnapped television comedian named Jackie Gleason.

Composer Wayne Shanklin, who writes musical scores for TV shows, was slugged with a divorce suit by his wife, Gloria Wayne's songwriting credits include "Chanson d'Amour" and "I Never Meant to Fall in Love."

THE BOSSES AT 20th-Fox are fuming over another example of TV's "cooperation" with Hollywood's movie-makers. Namely those Late-Late Little Box beamings of RKO's 1935 movie, "Dog of Flanders," for FREE viewing at the same time the studio's 1960 movie "Dog of Flanders," is making the rounds of the nation's movie theatres. I doubt, however, if the TV boys are fooling the public. Most set-siders can spot an old movie from the spin of the first sprocket.

Rogue's Rallies: "The police rounded up 50 undesirable characters the other night and last night, just to make it interesting, they rounded up 50 desirable ones!"

YVES MONTAND, practically unknown in the U. S. until his TV appearances this year, is now in great demand not only for TV but for movies. He'll co-star with Sophia Loren in her remake of Gloria Swanson's old silent movie, "Madame Sans-Gene" — IF he ever finishes "Let's Make Love," the one he's been shooting with Marilyn Monroe.

The seemingly endless movie, with the seldom-on-time Miss Monroe, has been shooting since last Jan. 18. Montand as a result has had to cancel several TV shots and a personal appearance tour of Japan... Attendee-vous, M. Montand: it's GOTTA finish shooting sometime because producer Jerry Wald has promised to make a p. a. with it in Italy this August, at the Venice Film Festival!

KEELY SMITH IS recording "Till You're Mine" for her own Keelco Records label. It was co-written by Joe Mikolas, one of the four young co-owners of Hollywood's Cloister, and the same club's orchestra leader, Gari Galian. Moral for would-be songwriters: Start your own nightclub.

Ex-movie producer Nat Holt's old Paramount hit, "Denver and Rio Grande," will be the source of Holt's new Venture, a series with the same title. It will star Lang Jeffries, Jeffries will combine business with pleasure by continuing his interrupted honeymoon with Rhonda Fleming on the Colorado location site of his "hoss opera with a railroading background."

LANG AND HIS bride looked just like what they are at Cobina Wright's art - exhibit - plus-cocktail - party for painter Tony De Soto - starry-eyed newlyweds. De Soto had painted Rhonda's portrait two months earlier. The painting contained two touches added by the artist at Rhonda's request immediately before the exhibit: her wedding - and - engagement rings.

The best of the paintings at the exhibit, where Mary Pickford and Marion Davies posed for the photos in front of an oil of Mary's husband, Buddy Rogers, were those of Jascha Heifetz and Clifton Webb. At the sister's request, neither of them had been retouched. The affair reminded me of Eugene Speicher's definition: "A portrait is a picture where something's wrong with the mouth."

TUESDAY WELD, occasional distaff star on the Dobie Gillis series, no longer has Dick Beymer of her own studio pitching in her romantic league. Beymer has switched to another Fox starlet, Kitty Regan. And Miss Weld has looked in at Marc Cavel in a Little Theatre production of "Dark At the Top of the Stairs" so frequently, she could play any part in the show at the drop of an understudy.

New situation - comedy series called "Ichabod" is pencilled in this fall for the half - hour 8 p.m. Thursday slot on the CBSchedule. It's by the writer-producers of "Leave It to Beaver," Joe Connelly and Bob Mosher. It'll be about a New England family where everybody sounds like Parker Fennelly, the co-producers claim, "although our arms could be twisted to switch the locale to the Midwest or even to the Ozarks!"

CONNELLY AND Mosher are laying off the writing end of it and farming out more and more of their weekly scripts for the "Beaver," "Ichabod" and "Bringing Up Buddy" shows to freelance TV writers. This allows C&M to concentrate more on the production end. They have a few thousand words to say about it and I'll let them spout for a spot here, with Connelly as spokesman for both.

"We have given up, as the height of fertility, the idea of signing any of the new crop of comedy writers coming off the college campuses. TV is far below these writers and they have delusions far beyond their ability. Spoiled and pampered at school, they believe they're cut out for bigger things than writing comedy for TV — at a mere $2,000 a week!"

"WE'RE AIMING instead to switch movie and magazine writers, and also novelists, over to TV. They have the common touch so necessary to the modern - day family comedy. The kind who make good writers for us are the 'hungry writers' who haven't lost their touch."

To arms, college grads — you can't all be "another Eugene O'Neill or Tennessee Williams." TV needs you, but starve a little first!

Quotes

WASHINGTON — UPI White House reporter Merriman Smith, explaining how to get recognized to ask a question at a presidential press conference:

LONDON — Member of Parliament George Wigg, stating that a betting bill liberalizing the restrictions on wagering will not bring too many changes:

"One has always been able to have a little wager here in the Parliament building, or at Scotland Yard, in the law courts, Lambeth Palace residence of the archbishop of Canterbury, or even Buckingham Palace."

Shrine Club Ladies Night on Tuesday

Palm Springs Shrine Club's big, final Ladies' Night of the season is planned this year as a poolside, Hawaiian style buffet at the Palm Springs Biltmore Tuesday, May 17.

Since the party was announced last week reservations have been pouring in, according to Dr. James W. Scott who is arranging the program. "Attendance is not restricted to Club members," Scott said, "as all Masons and their friends are invited."

The party is timed to coincide with the return of Club President Bob Winslow and others who went to Hawaii with Shrine Potentate Melvin Pixley and a whole shipload of Shriners who took over the Lurline recently. Hawaiian music and entertainment have been arranged, Dr. Scott announced.

Admission will be by ticket only so that proper arrangements can be made for everyone wishing to enjoy the party, Scott said, urging that those wanting to go should call him at FA 4-2530 or Bob Winslow's office at FA 5-2121.

Five Writers Signed for 'Homicide'

New Mystery Series Set to Replace Moore

Five eminent television writers — Bill S. Ballinger, Alvin Boretz, Joel Carpenter, Max Ehrlich and Ernest Kinoy — have been signed to provide scripts for "Homicide," the new one-hour mystery-detective series which will be the summer replacement for "The Garry Moore Show" beginning Tuesday, July 5 (CBS Television Network, 10-11 p.m.).

Ballinger, vice president of the Mystery Writers of America, is the author of 16 suspense novels. His television credits include "Alfred Hitchcock Presents," "The Lineup," "Johnny Staccato" and "Mike Hammer."

Boretz, a television veteran, wrote "The Blue Men" for "Playhouse 90," out of which grew the "Brenner" series. He is a frequent contributor to "Armstrong Circle Theatre." His most recent script for that program was "The Desperate Season," which dealt with the problem of suicide.

Carpenter has written for "The Untouchables," "Pursuit" and "Suspense."

EHRlich is the author of "Mutiny on the Shark," produced in two parts on "Studio One." He also wrote for "Suspicion," "Suspense" and "The Web." Most recently he created a one-hour series titled "No Hiding Place," which was produced by Associated Rediffusion in England. His novel, "The First Train to Babylon," is to be made into a motion picture, with Gary Cooper in the starring role. Another novel, "The Businessman," is scheduled for publication in January 1961.

Kinoy wrote "Autocrat and Son" and "Millionaire's Mile" for the "American Heritage" series this season. His other credits include "Shadows Tremble" (for "Playhouse 90"), "The Untouchables" and "Studio One." He is currently writing a Broadway play, "Something About a Soldier," based on the Mark Harris novel of the same title, which is scheduled for production in the fall.

CASTING DETAILS and directorial assignments for "Homicide" will be announced soon. The leading character in "Homicide" is Dr. Daniel Callaghan, head pathologist of a large hospital, who uses his laboratory skills to assist the police in the detection and solution of crimes. The program is believed to be the first television series to deal with the field of forensic medicine.

"Homicide" is based on a book of the same title by Lawrence G. Blochman, winner of the Forensic Science Academy Award and former president of the Mystery Writers of America.

Downs Says TV Creatures Desire To Know People as They Are

By WARREN FRANKLIN United Press International

NEW YORK — (UPI) — Television has created a new celebrity — the ordinary man with his everyday problems.

One who applauds this happening, but is himself an extra-ordinary opposite of video's folksy hero-elect, is Hugh Downs — a straightman, singer, interviewer, narrator, newscaster, emcee, and, upon occasion, stalwart rescuer of personalities who walk out on their TV shows.

"THERE IS A great yearning of the public to know people as they actually are," said Downs, who interprets this as a sign of maturity in the development of everyday viewing habits and taste.

"Television has caused people to look into themselves and at their own faces."

THIS DESIRE on the part of the public to know itself, he feels, is at least partially due to the impact of the intimate nature of television.

Greene, Strauss To Co-Star on 'Hot Footage'

Richard Greene and Robert Strauss co-star as competing television newsreel cameramen in "Hot Footage" on "The General Electric Theater" on the CBS Television Network Sunday, May 15, 9:30 p.m.

All's fair with (Jonnie) Love and (Hank) Wahr when it comes to newsreel scoops and beautiful women. Both are in Acapulco to film the arrival of survivors from a torpedoed freighter which the luxury yacht, Olympus, has rescued.

A scuffle develops with the yacht's suave owner, Joseph Karnak, and a Latin American reporter, Carlos Lupe. When Lupe becomes custodian of his notebook, which is packed with facts which might prove which "mystery" ship launched the torpedo.

Montgomery, James Cagney To Be Guests

Robert Montgomery and James Cagney, comedian Jack Carter, songstress Jane Froman, and song stylist Julie Wilson will headline "The Ed Sullivan Show" Sunday, May 15 (CBS Television Network, 8-9 p.m.).

Downs, HIMSELF, refuses to identify his own career with the cult of ordinariness. He made his dramatic debut recently in an NBC "Riverboat" series episode.

In the 19th Century period piece he played the part of a crewman who helped the overboarded captain fight off a band of hooded night-riders conducting a reign of terror against a small river community.

HE DESCRIBED the dramatization as "sociological, not racial." "Goals of ultimate worth are best served by a moderate course," he said, suggesting that this philosophy might be applicable to the television industry itself.

"Rebellion, bad temper and emotionalism are in varying degrees part of all of us," said Downs. "What of some self."

American, State Flags Given Coffman

Two auditorium display flags and standards — the American and the state of California — have been accepted by Nellie N. Coffman Acting Principal James Milliron.

The 50-star American flag and standard was given to the Junior High School by Joseph Devlin, custodian at the school.

THE FLAG WAS NOT the first gift from Devlin to the pupils and the school. During his four years on the campus he has donated his overtime pay to scholarship funds for the pupils, and often buys athletic tickets for the boys and girls. "I like kids," Devlin said, "I think there is far more good in them than there is bad."

A VETERAN of World War I and World War II, Devlin explained that he enjoys his present work in the school district because it keeps him in close touch with youth.

The California State flag and standard was purchased by activity funds of the school, and was presented to the Principal by the Student Council and their sponsor, Mel Aussieker.

Morris 850 New Immigrant

The Morris 850 cars, which have created such a furor in recent months abroad, and recently introduced in the United States, are now at Palm Springs Imports & was announced today.

The 850's may well be considered a major breakthrough in modern automotive engineering. Untold thousands of grueling test miles and eight years of intensive research and development by British Motor Corporation design chief, Alec Issigonis, and a carefully selected technical team, have resulted in a final design that is as tremendously successful as it is extremely unorthodox.

The cars easily exceed 70 miles per hour and accelerate from zero to 50 miles per hour in less than 18 seconds. They boast amazing hill climbing and cornering ability even in mud and snow. Gasoline economy is said to be up to 45 miles per gallon.

Probably the most significant departure from conventional automotive design is the crosswise mounting of the front-wheel drive, water-cooled, 4-cylinder engine. The entire transmission is directly beneath the engine, with the 4-speed synchromesh gearbox in the engine sump. This unusual layout has eliminated propeller shaft and rear end noise and vibration and has freed 80 per cent of the car's length for passenger use.

Final Plans for Trailer Rally On Oct. 21-23 Accomplished

By AL NEHL

Plans for the 1960 Palm Springs Trailer Rally which will be held in the Palm Springs Polo Grounds October 21-23 were finalized here Saturday.

After a noon luncheon at the Chi Chi, the meeting was moved to the recreation building of the Prairie Schooner Trailer Village, where under the chairmanship of Rex Thompson, president of the Palm Springs Trailer Rally Association, plans and programs were discussed in detail and approved for printing in a 48-page souvenir brochure.

TWENTY THOUSAND of these brochures will be printed and the plan is to distribute them wherever they will advertise trailer living in the Palm Springs area to the best advantage.

A new feature this year will be guided tours thru the local trailer parks and to other points of interest nearby. Among those from out of town who attended the meeting were Dave Lyon, public relations executive from the Trailer Coach Association. The TCA plans a bigger and better display of new trailers this year. For the first time, the trailers on display will be well lighted at night and public relations personnel from sponsoring manufacturers rather than from dealers will be on the job to answer questions and furnish information.

ANOTHER INNOVATION will be an information booth staffed by local people who will greet the visitors and attempt to make them feel welcome and wanted in Palm Springs. The Travel Trailer Clubs of America, an organization that now includes over 50 clubs whose chief interest is trailer touring, were represented by Elmer Worthing, immediate past president and L. E. "Lucky" Miller, border area governor of TTCA. Joel Tedder, founder of the Western Council of Trailer Clubs represented that organization which is interested mainly in legislation affecting trailer owners, park operators and manufacturers of trailers and their component parts. Art Costello represented the Air Stream factory.

PUZZLED POLICE PONDER PILFERED PARKING POLE

Palm Springs police today pondered just where the buffalo roamed — because somebody got the nickel back Wednesday night. Police won't need the buffalo to identify the suspect or suspects. A parking meter valued at $80 went with the coins, from a space in the city parking lot behind the MFK drugstore at North Palm Canyon Drive and Tahquitz.

The meters are cemented into place, but occasionally are jarred loose by auto bumpers or other blunt objects.

However it was done, the mechanized hitching rail faded into the night. Police observed the only known non-public parking meter in the area is strictly a gag — and strictly purchased by a young violinist named Benny.

home in Vancouver, B. C. the latter part of this month.

Washington State residents of the park are patting themselves on the back. Reason: Cup winners for the largest number of trailer park residents from their state present at the last Desert Circus breakfast. This cup is awarded annually by the Desert Circus Committee. Dave Cromwell, park manager, displayed the trophy at the Mens' Club Meeting. He also praised Rudy Campbell and all others who worked so hard to boost attendance.

Melvin Christensen is flying over the pole from Denmark on May 12 to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William C. Christensen. He is a publicity executive for one of the big oil companies in Arabia and begins a two month vacation in this country before returning to the far east.

Gloria and Earl Payne are spending the summer in San Diego. They expect to continue instruction in round and pattern dancing. —L.J.

Eighty-one year-old J. V. Date a long time winter resident of Prairie Schooner was named Governor of the newly formed San Joaquin Valley District of the Travel Trailer Clubs of America during the April 29-30 May 1 rally at Fresno.

One hundred and eight trailers and a total of over two hundred and fifty people attended the rally. Date is the founder and president of the IMPS trailer club, (InterMountain Pals) many of whose members winter in the Palm Springs area. Arrangements for the rally were under the direction of Roadrunners Trailer Club and Rollin' Wagons Trailer Club.

Other Clubs participating were the Modesto Club, The Draggins' Wagons Club, the Nomads, Taft Trailer Club, the Hook - Um-Up Club, the Swan's Trailer Club, the Fifty Niners Club, the IMPS Club, the Bay Area Band, Jewell

Jipsies, the Boles - Aero - Zenith Club, the Pacific Trailer Club, and the North American Aviation Club. Practically all of these clubs have expressed an intention to attend the Palm Springs Trailer rally here, October 21st to 23rd.

Tramview Park Our semi-retired Swiss mountain climber and former banker Werner Zwicker and his wife, Martha, of 38-811 Charlesworth Drive in Cathedral City, have the pleasure of being visited for two weeks by old friends, and distinguished citizens of Mount Vernon, N. Y. Mr. and Mrs. Peter Kelbisch, the Casualty Insurance "Cracker Jack," with 35 years service with the Hartford Casualty Insurance Company of New York, are amazed with our desert valley. The jet flight thrilled them, and landing in Palm Springs they were so awed that instead of saying hello, they said, "We had no idea it could be so beautiful in the valley where you live."

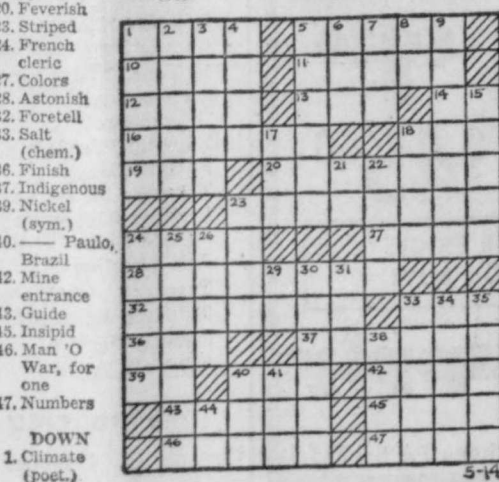

Having their minds on everything of beauty around them made even Peter forget that he had a birthday, which was celebrated last Thursday at the Biltmore with their old friend, Chef and Mrs. John Rothman. The Zwickers took them to Lake Arrowhead, Big Bear, Yuca Valley, but had to give up Disneyland as time was drawing short. Seeing our beloved Tramview and our trailer living in such beautiful and happy surroundings, made them become more desirous of retiring to California.

Innocent Plea to Robbery Charge

INDIO — Bound over to Superior Court here were Ignacio Rojas Placentia, 42, of Brawley, who pleaded innocent to charges of strong armed robbery against Jesus R. Castillon, and Edward Jackson Parker, 28, Bakersfield, who was charged with forgery.

Baha'i to Hear 'Way to Peace' Topic Sunday

"The Way to Peace," will be the subject for discussion at the weekly meeting of the Baha'i Community of Palm Springs when they gather at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hendershot, 1975 El Oro Way at 2:30 p.m. Sunday.

Dr. John Stroessler of San Diego will be the speaker.

IN HIS PRESENTATION of the subject, he will stress this basic point that the first step toward peace is the elimination of all prejudices — religious, racial, national and political — that mankind must come to recognize the oneness and unity of the whole human race.

Dr. Stroessler taught for a number of years in public schools and colleges, having served on the faculties of San Francisco State College, Stanford and the University of Washington. After leaving the teaching field, he was for several years Consultant Psychologist with the Navy and at present serves in that capacity with Convair — Astronautics in San Diego.

DR. STROESSLER's services in the Baha'i World Faith have been as varied as those in his professional field.

He has served on several national and regional committees; as chairman of the local spiritual Assemblies of Seattle, San Francisco and San Diego; and has taught at sessions of the Geyserville Baha'i Summer School at Geyserville, Calif.

'Worshipping' Sunday Topic for NPS Community

NORTH PALM SPRINGS — "Worshipping and Desiring" will be the sermon topic of the Rev. Dwight H. Ball at the 11 a.m. worship service Sunday of the North Palm Springs Community Church.

The text to be used is the Gospel account of the mother of two of the disciples who came to Jesus — "Worshipping him; and desiring a certain thing of him." Questions to be asked are "What is true worship of God?" and "What requests are fitting as part of our worship?"

The church this week completed installation of a cooling system, so that most functions of the church can be continued throughout the summer. The cooler and necessary equipment and the actual installation were all donated by various church members.

Look Sharp

MILWAUKEE (UPI) — Maxwell Distenfeld was taking a little nap before dinner when his 11-year-old daughter Krissie, who had been watching television, tiptoed into the bedroom and patted him gently on the cheek.

When Dad asked Krissie what she wanted, she replied: "I just wanted to know whether you have a medium or a heavy beard."

'Liberal Religion' Talk for Unitarians

Raymond G. Manker, minister of the Universalist-Unitarian Church in Riverside, will speak before the Palm Springs Unitarian Fellowship when it meets on Sunday evening, May 15, at 8 o'clock in the Chamber of Commerce Board Room.

"What is Liberal Religion?" will be the topic for his informal address, which will be followed by an open discussion period and coffee hour.

THE REV. MANKER helped organize the Palm Springs Unitarian Fellowship when it was formed last October. His return appearance here on Sunday evening is being anticipated eagerly by the group.

Presiding at the meeting will be the newly-elected chairman, Bill Hesson. Other Fellowship leaders chosen at the recent annual meeting are: Chris Cracraft, assistant chairman; R. W. Luke, secretary; and Charles Sakin, treasurer.

IN ADDITION to the election, the group also adopted by-laws at its last meeting and thus formally paved the way for making application to the American Unitarian Association in Boston for official Fellowship status.

A Unitarian Sunday School has been formed here and is meeting each week. Parents interested in liberal religious education for their children over five years old are invited to contact the Sunday School chairman, Mrs. Robert Schnabel at Fairview 5-7428.

Christian Science Topic Revealed

Why spiritualization of thought is essential to the peace and progress of mankind will be explained at all Christian Science services on Sunday.

Keynoting the Lesson - Sermon on the subject "Mortals and Immortals" is the Golden Text from Romans 8:6, "To be carnally minded is death; but to be spiritual-minded, 'Lo, My Shepherd is Divine.'"

In a Bible passage to be read from John's Gospel (3:3,6,7) Jesus tells Nicodemus, "Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God . . . That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit. Marvel not that I said unto thee, Ye must be born again."
